Petra

Enjoy the nature of Sinai desert and mountain of AL Aqaba golf while driving for about 2 and half hours to Taba port. Then take the ferry to sail across Aqaba golf and get to Jordan then 2 more hours drive to get to Petra to start your adventure .

Upon arrival the ancient capital of the Nabateans, each person takes a Bedouin guided horse to enter the lost city .

After the visit of some graves that are located outside of the city, should be through the Canyon of Siq, a natural geological feature formed from a deep split in the sandstone rocks and serving as a waterway flowing into Wadi Mosses.

This Canyon is one of the main reasons why Petra was such an amazing attractive site for the Nabateans behind a narrow and easily defensible canyon known as the Siq.

Our next visit should be to the great treasury of the Pharaoh which is known as Al Khazneh, it's one of the most elaborate buildings in the ancient Jordanian city of Petra. This structure was also carved out of a sandstone rock face. It has classical Greek-influenced architecture, it was originally built, probably between 100 BC and AD 200. Its Arabic name Treasury derives from one legend that bandits or pirates hid their loot in a stone urn high on the second level. Another is that it functioned as a treasury of the Egyptian Pharaoh of the time of Moses (Khaznet Far'oun).

By the end of the day By, you'll drive back to Aqaba port to sail by ferry back to Taba and then drive back to your hotel in Sharm El Sheikh

Coloured Canyon & Nuweiba

An adventurous Jeep ride, 190km from Sharm El Sheikh, reach one of the most magnificent rock formations in the world. The coloured canyon is a maze of sandstone rocks in hues of yellow, purple, red, magenta and gold. When you start descending, you'll notice that many of the rocks are covered in a chalk-like powder .At some places, the rocks radiate crystalline colors, at others, and they have a smooth velvety appearance. Travel from Canyon to Nuweiba where you can snorkel and view the Red Sea from a submarine. The lunch is included in a local restaurant.
